MEDIA RELEASE – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The President of the ACT Bar Association, Mr Ken Archer, today welcomed the appointment of Associate Judge David Mossop as a judge of the ACT Supreme Court.

"His Honour is a welcome appointment as a Judge of the Supreme Court. His Honour has demonstrated, as a barrister, a Magistrate and as an Associate Judge of the Supreme Court that he has a fine legal mind and a commitment to arriving at right and just legal results within the framework of the Human Rights Act. His Honour's commitment to the efficient disposition of the work of the Supreme Court will ensure that the advances in case management processes of the Court will be continued. His Honour is a respected and popular figure in the Canberra legal community."

"The Bar congratulates His Honour on his appointment."
